ROSA LEE BACON: A retired economist, she has been involved with dramatic productions in high school and glee club work at the University of Tennessee. She sang in the women's chorus in "Memories of Broadway" and was Mrs. Bradman in "Blythe Spirit" at the Lyceum.

MARGARET CARLTON: A teacher, councilwoman, theater major at OU, she has been a part of every phase of Lyceum Theater from acting to technical production to director for the past 12 years.

HELEN FRIETCH: A quiet observer of Lyceum Theater for years as Nancy Gruber's transportation when Nancy directed our plays, this is Helen's first official experience as assistant director.

LYNN MURRAY: A Lyceum member, who has been a part of our productions since 1968, makes her acting debut in "Steel Magnolias." She has also choreographed Princeton High School musicals but is happy to join her mother and four children with a roll - ON STAGE.

NANCY PARKS: A familiar face in Lyceum productions, she makes her debut in a major roll. Nancy has been a part of all our musicals and has even appeared in the "Nutcracker" with the Cincinnati Ballet Company.

PAT SKROCKI: A guest director, Pat has directed high school plays, as well as Summer Stock on college campuses. She received her Masters in Theatre Arts from Xavier University. This is her debut with the Lyceum Dramatic Club.

SHERRY VEVERKA: An energetic actress, Sherry has appeared in several Lyceum productions - both on and off the stage, including "Best Laid Plans," "Fireman, Save My Child," Christmas on the Village Square," "Scrooge," and "South Pacific."

TARA VICE: A sophomore at Princeton High School, Tara made her Lyceum debut at age four in "Here's Love." She has also appeared in "Scrooge" and "Christmas on the Village Square." She played the violin in Princeton's production of "Li'l Abner."

The Glendale Lyceum Dramatic Club

Recognizes

NANCY GRUBER

A friend. A loving person who gave of herself to the Lyceum Dramatic Club and the Community. Her time, energy, talent, and knowledge are appreciated and will always be remembered. Her leadership in the following productions and others gave enjoyment to the Lyceum membership.

Thanks, Nancy
